MINISTRY OF HEALTHNew Delhi-2, the 9th April 1955*

No. F. 17-5/51-PH(PH).—In exercise of the powers conferred by the provision to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed to the Central Port Health Organisation, (Class I and Class II), namely:—

THE CENTRAL PORT HEALTH ORGANISATION RECRUITMENT RULES, 1954*PART I—GENERAL

1. These rules may be called the Central Port Health Organisation Recruitment Rules, 1954.

2. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

- (a) "Cadre" means the Central Port Health Cadre comprising of three categories, viz., the posts in category I of the Cadre, classified as Central Service Class I and those in Category II and Category III, classified as Central Service, Class II;
- (b) "the Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission;
- (c) "the Government" means the Central Government;
- (d) "Scheduled Castes" and "Scheduled Tribes" have the same meanings as in clauses (24) and (25) of article 366 of the Constitution of India; and

(e) "service" means Central Service (Class I and Class II) in the Central Port Health Organisation, Ministry of Health, Government of India consisting of the posts with the scale of pay attached to each as shown in the Schedule hereto annexed and includes any other posts which may from time to time be included in the said Schedule.

3. Recruitment to the service shall be made by one or the other of the following methods, namely:—

- (i) by promotion in accordance with Part II or
- (ii) by selection in accordance with Part III.

4. (a) Appointment to posts borne in the Cadre of the Central Service, Class II (Categories II and III), shall be made as specified below, that is to say:—

(b) Appointments to posts borne in the Cadre of the Central Service, Class II (Categories II and III), shall be made as specified below, that is to say:—

(i) appointments to posts which are included in Category II of the cadre shall, as a rule, be made by promotion of suitable officers from Category III, possessing a diploma in Public Health as provided in Part II,

(ii) appointments to the remaining posts in Category III of the service, shall be made by selection as specified in Part III.

(c) If at any time it is not practicable to make any appointment to Category I or Category II by promotion in accordance with the provisions of clause (a) or (b) (i), due to non-availability of suitable candidates, or for any other reason, such appointment shall be made by selection in accordance with the provisions of Part III.

5. Subject to the provisions of rules 3 and 4, the Government shall determine the method or methods to be adopted by it for the purpose of filling up any vacancy or vacancies, or such vacancy or vacancies as may be required to be filled up during any particular period and the number of candidates to be recruited by each such method.

6. Appointments to the service made otherwise than by promotion shall be subject to any orders which may from time to time be issued by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs according to special representation to any specified sections of the people in the service of the Government.

PART II—RECRUITMENT BY PROMOTION

7. Recruitment by promotion shall be made from the grades indicated below:—

From Class II (Category II) to Class I or within Class II (from Category III to Category II) from among the officers in the specified category of the cadre. Recruitment by promotion to selection posts in the service shall be made by selection on merit on the recommendations of a Departmental Promotion Committee appointed for the purpose by the Government, and where a member of the Commission is included in the Departmental Promotion Committee such member shall act as the "Chairman" of the Committee. The officer selected shall be appointed by the Government.

8. If the power to make appointments to the service is delegated by the Government to officer, that officer may exercise any powers of Government under this Part of these rules.

PART III—RECRUITMENT BY SELECTION

9. A candidate for admission to the selection must apply before such date in such form and in such manner as may from time to time be prescribed by the Commission.

10. (i) A candidate must be either:—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a person who has migrated from areas which now form Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling down in India, or
- (d) a subject of Nepal or of a Portuguese or Fresh possession in India.

NOTE 1.—The appointment of a candidate falling within category (c) or (d) shall be subject to the issue of a certificate of eligibility in his favour by the Government. Certificates of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any of the following categories namely:—

- (1) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before 19th July, 1948, and have ordinarily been resident in India since then;

- (2) persons who migrated to India from Pakistan after 18th July, 1948, but before 30th September, 1948, and got themselves registered as Indian citizens within the time allowed.
- (3) Non-citizens who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution viz., 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then. Any such persons who re-entered, or may re-enter such service with a break, after the 26th January, 1950, will, however, require certificates of eligibility in the usual way.

NOTE II.—A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being eventually issued in his favour by the Government.

(II) A candidate must not be more than 35 years of age on the first day of January in the year in which selection is held (the age limit may be relaxed in the case of persons in the permanent service of the Government.);

NOTE 1.—The upper age limit will be relaxed upto a maximum of three years if a candidate belongs to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes.

2. Candidates who are bona-fide displaced persons from Pakistan will be allowed the age concessions which the Government may sanction from time to time.

3. The Commission may relax the age limits in the case of suitable candidates upto three years in exceptional circumstances.

(III) A candidate must be a graduate in medicine and Surgery or possess an equivalent qualification recognised by the Medical Council of India; Candidates for Category I and Category II posts must also possess a Diploma in Public Health; Provided that in exceptional cases, the Commission may, on the recommendation of the Central Government or a State Government treat as qualified a candidate who, though he has not all or any of the qualifications prescribed in this Rule, has passed examinations conducted by other institutions of a standard which in the opinion of the Commission justifies his admission.

(iv) A candidate must satisfy the Commission and the appointing authority that his character and antecedents are such as to make him suitable for appointment to the service.

11. The decision of the Commission on the question whether a candidate does or does not satisfy any of the requirements of rule 10 [including special qualifications, if any prescribed under sub-rule (iii) of Rule 10] shall be final.

12. Except in a case falling under clause (iii) of rule 10 the Government may modify or waive any of the requirements of that rule when an appointment for work of a special nature is to be made and it is not practicable to obtain a suitable candidate who fulfils all the requirements of Rule 10.

13. A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of duties as an officer of the service. A candidate who (after such physical examination as the Government or the appointing authority, as the case may be, may prescribe) is found not to satisfy those requirements will not be appointed.

14. A candidate must, at the time of application, pay such fee as the Government after consulting the Commission may from time to time prescribe and the candidate must submit such proof of his qualifications as the Commission may require.

15. (a) Appointments shall be made on probation for a period of one year, which may be curtailed or extended at the discretion of the appointing authority.

(b) On the conclusion of his period of probation, the Government may confirm the officer in his appointment. If, however, during or at the end of the probationary period his work or conduct has in the opinion of the Government, been unsatisfactory, the Government may either discharge him, or extend his period of probation for such further period, as the Government may think fit. Provided that no probationer shall be discharged until he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken in regard to him.

(c) If no action is taken by the Government under sub-rule (b) the period after the prescribed period of probation shall be treated as an engagement from month to month, terminable on either side on the expiration of one calendar month's notice in writing.

(d) If the power to make appointments in the service is delegated by the Government to any authority, that authority may exercise any of the powers of the Government under this rule.

16. Selected candidates shall be required to serve at any sea or airport in India.

17. Officers appointed to the service shall be debarred from private practice.
